Yours truly,

MILLER BROS.

To the Editor of Tribune.

Dear Sir:—from a late issue of your paper there appears to be some doubt in the minds of some concerning my qualifications as a voter in Anadarko, and I am asked to inform the public as to the facts in the case, all of which I am only too glad to do. Concerning my residence during the past year, I will say that I came to El Reno Oklahoma in October 1900, remaining there and at Oklahoma City till about January 27, 1901, when I went to Weatherford, Roger Mills County and filled on some land. I remained at Weatherford until April, when I went to Indiana on a business trip for the Choctaw rail way and was gone about one month. I returned and shortly after my return to the territory I took up my abode at El Reno where I remained until Sept. 28, 1901, when I came to Anadarko where I have resided since that time and where I expect to remain, trusting this will be the desired information and thanking you for your careful regard for the welfare of Anadarko and I wish to assure you that I am pleased to cooperate with you in excluding any and all men who are not legal voters from voting as well as to keep all non-residents from holding office and "keep the rascals out" from all sources.—Yours for good clean city administration, J C CARROLL.

To the Tribune.

Concerning a communication from Omaha signed by E Rosewater, I wish to say that the writer is not a political opponent but a private enemy and that his statements are all false and there is no solid grounds for any such statements or any parts.

Very Respectfully

J C CARROLL.

ANOTHER KILLING

South of Bridgeport 6 Miles.

ONE MAN KILLED

Two Negros Killed a R. R. Man Yesterday Evening at 3:15.

The Negros are Still at Large—Bridgeport has Tough Characters in Her Vicinity.

Two negros waylaid and killed a railroad man by the name of Gathers and then fled. They are still at large as we go to press. There is no clue as to their whereabouts. The killing took place at Wagon's camp.

We failed to get any description of the negros other than one is badly pock marked and the other one is hair lipped. These killings are getting too common and we want to advise all good people to assist our officers in seeing that none but officers carry concealed firearms. It is a violation of the law and let us see that it is enforced.

Edward Bitsche is complimented every day on the amount of good work done on our streets by him. He has demonstrated the fact that he is suited for Street Commissioner. See that Edward Bitsche's name is on your ticket.

The parties that claim they are too good to vote for Junius Oldham for Treasurer of School Board do not know him. He deserves the support of everybody in this city. Vote for Oldham.
